Council/Mayor Comments

- Jerry West: Welcomed Rick Cross and Mike Ernst to the Town Council. In light of approval of the resolution, encourage all Council Members to put together their questions regarding the purchase of property from Twin City for recreation purposes.
- John Guglielmi: Very concerned about the lack of lighting for the US 158 roundabout. Wants to push for lighting quickly.
- Ed Coley: Congratulated Rick Cross and Mike Ernst for their appointments to the Town Council. Reminded those in attendance that his first responsibility is to represent the people of the town. He does not agree that the Town needs to purchase a total of 14 acres to provide recreation services for the Town. He believes the soccer group wants the Town to purchase a total of 14 acres simply to offset their cost.
- Mike Ernst: Concurred with John Guglielmi's concern about the safety at the roundabout. Expressed a need to make the signage approaching the roundabout from Clemmons more clear. He wants to be very cautious and considerate with traffic issues and concerns from Kinderton Village residents that are associated with the proposed soccer park expansion. He feels the potential investment in recreation will be important in younger people moving into town.
- Rick Cross: Expressed his gratitude to be appointed to the Town Council. He understands he represents all residents.
- Mayor Rethmeier: Expressed that the Town is blessed to have incredible talent and it excite the Town Council has tapped into new resources. He thanked Ken Bateman and Shirley Cagle again for their exemplary service to the Town.
